

[check the correct box]

I withdraw the notice in Form _____ dated _____ [date]

I withdraw _____ [identify document] dated _____ [date]

I withdraw all forms and documents filed in connection with my claim to an interest in the member's/annuitant's benefits and waive my claim to any interest.

Signed _____

spouse

personal representative of the spouse

Date _____

Signed (witness) _____

Name of witness _____

Address of witness _____

_____

_____

Comments and Instructions:

Your interest in the benefits is important, and the Family Law Act provides that withdrawing forms or documents, or a waiver of division of benefits, is not effective unless it is in this form. When dealing with valuable assets, obtaining legal advice is usually considered prudent. This form is not a substitute for legal advice.